

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-A-2643-MA-2017(O&M)

Date of Decision: 07.02.2018

State of Haryana

...Appellant(s)

Versus

Bindu

...Respondent(s)

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE ANITA CHAUDHRY

Present: Ms. Mahima Yashpal, AAG, Haryana, counsel for the appellant-State.

ANITA CHAUDHRY, J.

Delay condoned.

This appeal has been filed against the acquittal recorded by the Additional Sessions Judge, Karnal in FIR No.498 dated 30.11.2015, registered under Sections 323, 376, 511, 506 IPC.

The facts necessary for disposal of the appeal are being given below:-

The prosecutrix is a married woman. She went out of the house to throw cow dung cakes in her Bara. The accused a co-villager overpowered her and threw her on the ground and broke the string of her Salwar and removed it and thereafter he removed his trousers. The complainant raised alarm but the accused closed her mouth and attempted to commit rape. The complainant managed to wriggle out of the clutches of the accused and raised alarm which attracted Jasmer and Gian Singh. On seeing them approaching, the accused slapped her and fled away. While leaving he extended threats. The complainant's husband had gone