.....Petitioner

Vs.

State of Haryana

..Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE AMOL RATTAN SINGH

Present: Ms.Sharmila Sharma, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. Surender Singh, A.A.G., Haryana.

AMOL RATTAN SINGH, J. (Oral)

Learned State counsel on instructions submits that the petitioner though has joined investigation but is not co-operating, in as much as he is not handing over the machine/printer on which he allegedly printed the fake currency notes as have been recovered (as per the case of the investigating agency), from his co-accused, Sunil, who has been apprehended; who is stated to have then disclosed that he had obtained them from the petitioner, who prints such notes (again as per the case of the investigating agency).

Though learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner has only been named in the FIR on the alleged disclosure statement made by a co-accused, which is otherwise inadmissible in evidence, however, the printing of fake currency notes obviously being an extremely serious offence, without making any actual comment on the involvement or non-involvement of the petitioner in any such crime, which would be gone into by the investigating agency and the competent Court at the appropriate stage, I do not think it is a fit case in which the interim order should continue.

Consequently, this petition is dismissed, with the interim order vacated.
