Present petition has been filed for seeking bail pending trial in Complaint No.134-A dated 15.09.2013 for the offences punishable under Section 302/207/34 IPC registered before the Court of Chief Judicial Magistrate, Sonapat.

Learned counsel for the petitioner has submitted that the petitioner has been in custody since long time. It is further contended that it is a case of version and cross-version. The petitioner has been wrongly roped up in the case. It was the complainant party who were the aggressors who entered into the house of the petitioner with fire arm. It is further contended by learned counsel for the petitioner that the trial is likely to take a long time.

Vide separate Order of the even date, another petition pertaining to summoning of the witness in the cross case has been allowed by this Court. The evidence is almost over. Therefore, it would not be appropriate to release the petitioner at this stage. Hence the present petition is dismissed.

However, since the petitioner has been in custody for a long time, therefore, it is ordered that in case the trial of the case is not completed within two months, after examination of the newly ordered summoned witness, then the petitioner shall be at liberty to move fresh application in the Trial Court for seeking bail pending trial.
