.....Petitioner

v.

State of Haryana

.....Respondent

CORAM HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJ SHEKHAR ATTRI

Present:- Mr. M.S. Basra, Advocate, for the petitioner

Mr. R.K. Makkar, DAG, Haryana

RAJ SHEKHAR ATTRI, J.

This petition is filed under Section 438 of the Cr.P.C. for seeking anticipatory bail of the petitioner in FIR No. 313 dated 12.11.2017 under Sections 148/149/323/324/326/307 and 506 of the IPC and Section 25 of the Arms Act, registered at Police Station Taraori, District Karnal.

It is case of the prosecution that the petitioner along with 30 to 35 persons armed with deadly weapons, came to the residential farm house (dera) of the complainant Punjab Singh. One of the member of the unlawful assembly, raised lalkara and thereafter, other members of the unlawful assembly inflicted injuries to the complainant.

It has been submitted by learned counsel for the petitioner that no injury has been attributed to the petitioner in the FIR and no injury has been attributed which has been declared grievous. The petitioner was member of the party armed with deadly weapon but he has also received injuries and in the cross version he has stated that the complainant party, armed with weapons, attacked on the petitioner.

Learned State counsel, on instructions from ASI Balkar Singh, has submitted that the police wants to recover the weapon of offence.

Weapon of offence is yet to be recovered, therefore, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is necessary. Therefore, there is no ground to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner. Accordingly, the instant petition stands dismissed.
