...Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE JAISHREE THAKUR

Present:- Mr. R.K. Kapila, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. R.S. Khaira, AAG, Punjab.

JAISHREE THAKUR, J. (Oral)

This petition has been filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure seeking quashing of FIR No.28 dated 06.05.2017 registered under Sections 354, 452, 506 of Indian Penal Code at Police Khemkaran, District Tarn Taran (Annexure P/1) and all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom in view of the compromise dated 26.03.2018 (Annexure P/2).

The FIR has been registered on the statement of complainant-respondent No.2 on the allegations that the accused-petitioner had forcibly entered the room of the complainant-respondent No.2 and tried to outrage the modesty of her and her daughter and also gave threats. Now with the intervention of respectable persons, the matter has been amicably compromised between the parties and they have resolved their disputes and differences.

Keeping in view the fact that the parties have entered into a compromise, they were directed to appear before the trial court/Illaq Magistrate for getting their statements recorded in support of the compromise. In pursuance of the direction, a report dated 26.04.2018 has been received from Judicial Magistrate Ist Class at Patti forwarded through District and Sessions Judge, Tarn Taran, stating that the compromise arrived at between the parties is without any pressure or coercion from any one and the same is genuine one.

Learned Assistant Advocate General, Punjab, on instructions from the Investigating Officer and learned counsel for the complainant-respondent No.2 admit the factum of compromise and submit that in case the parties have indeed settled their dispute, the State would have no objection to the quashing of the FIR, in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have gone through the record.

In a decision, based on compromise, none of the parties is a loser. Rather, a compromise not only brings peace and harmony between the parties to a dispute, but also restores tranquility in the society. After considering the nature of offences allegedly committed and the fact that both the parties have amicably settled their dispute, continuance of criminal prosecution would be an exercise in futility, as the chances of ultimate conviction are bleak.

Consequently, keeping in view the fact that the dispute has been amicably settled and in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Narinder Singh and others vs. State of Punjab and another, (2014) 6 SCC 466, this petition is allowed and FIR No.28 dated 06.05.2017 registered under Sections 354, 452, 506 of Indian Penal Code at Police Khemkaran, District Tarn Taran and all subsequent proceedings arising out of the same are quashed.

The petition stands disposed of.
