IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

R.S.A. No. 1514 of 1990(O&M)

Decided on: 22.02.2018

RAN SINGH AND ANOTHER

.....Appellants

versus

BHAJAN SINGH AND OTHERS

.....Respondents

Coram: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJBIR SEHRAWAT

Present: None.

Rajbir Sehrawat, J. (Oral)

Vide order dated 18.01.2018, it was ordered that notice regarding pendency of the appeal be sent to the learned counsel for both the parties and to both the parties as well.

The office report shows that both the learned counsel for the parties have been duly served. However, the appellant No.2 is reported to have died. The appellant No. 1 has remained un-served because he was not found present at the time of service. The respondents No. 1 to 3 have reported to have expired and remaining respondents could not be served because they were not found available at the given address.

However, vide order dated 11.11.1992, this Court passed the following order:-

“This is an application for sanctioning the compromise. The statements of the parties have been recorded. I am satisfied that the compromise is voluntary. In terms of the compromise, the appeal is disposed of. The suit filed by Smt. Balwant Kaur, Major Singh and Hardeep Singh is dismissed and the appeal filed by Ran Singh and another is accordingly allowed. The compromise will form part of the decree. One of the respondent has not entered into the compromise. His claim will be separately adjudicated in the appeal.”

In view of the above, this appeal stands disposed of with regard to the respondents No. 2 to 4 and qua respondent No. 1; this appeal is pending.

Since none of the learned counsel have come to pursue the case any further, therefore, the present appeal is dismissed in default.
