State of Punjab

...Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE H.S. MADAAN

Present : Mr.B.S. Toor, Advocate for the petitioner.

H.S. MADAAN, J.

This is a petition for quashing of order dated 17.1.2018 and order dated 7.3.2018 passed by learned Judge, Special Court, Ludhiana.

The petitioner, who is an accused facing trial in the said Court had not appeared in the Court on 17.1.2018, resultantly his bonds were cancelled and forfeited to the State and he was ordered to be summoned through non-bailable warrants but the same could not be executed and the trial Court issued proclamation under Section 82 Cr.P.C. against the accused.

According to the petitioner, his non-appearance was not intentional but due to wrong noting down of the date. However, I do not see any reason for quashing of the orders. The petitioner instead of appearing in the trial Court and explaining all the facts and circumstances has opted to approach this Court by way of filing the present petition. The petition is without merit.

The petition stands dismissed with a direction to the petitioner to surrender in the trial Court and on his doing so and moving application for regular bail, the same be disposed of expeditiously.
