The petitioner seeks the concession of anticipatory bail in FIR No.111 dated 23.02.2018 under Sections 363/366A/365/120B IPC and Section 6 of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012, registered at Police Station Gharaunda, Karnal.

The victim aged 17 years was reported to be missing by her father since 22.02.2018. The abovesaid FIR was initially registered under Section 346 IPC. The victim was recovered on 11.03.2018 from Bangalore. It was found that she was working at a Dance Bar. Allegations against the petitioner are that she facilitated the victim to obtain a job at the Dance Bar and allegations of rape have been levelled against the co-accused. As per the prosecution version, the present petitioner is fiancée of the co-accused Krishan, who is alleged to have committed rape upon the victim. It is rightly observed by the learned Additional Sessions Judge-cum-Special Court for the Cases of Heinous Crime against Women, Karnal that once the petitioner herself urged that she facilitated the minor victim in fleeing her house, go to Bangalore even while arranging her air ticket, petitioner's custodial interrogation is required for unearthing the complete facts.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of the case, I do not find any ground whatsoever to afford the concession of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

Petition is dismissed.
