Meghna

... Petitioners

versus

Amar Kumar Aggarwal

... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE AMOL RATTAN SINGH.

Present: Mr.Narender Singh Gill, Advocate, for the petitioner.

AMOL RATTAN SINGH, J. (Oral)

Though I see no infirmity in the impugned order of the learned trial Court, in as much as it has been recorded qua the petitioner herein (Meghna), that though it was contended by her counsel before that Court that she was suffering from illness, no medical certificate was produced and even on two previous dates she had not appeared before that Court; consequently leading to issuance of warrants of arrest to secure her presence on the next date of hearing, i.e. 04.05.2018. However, learned counsel for the petitioner submits that actually the daughter of the petitioner is suffering from a mental illness, in support of which a photocopy of a certificate issued by NIMH Regional Centre, Lajpat Nagar, New Delhi, has been annexed as Annexure P1 with the petition.

A perusal of the said certificate shows that Simona Bhunyan daughter of Mrs.Meghna Bhunyan, is suffering from Mid Mental Retardation, with a permanently disability of 50%, even the photocopy shows that she was assessed as above on 20.08.2009.

In view of the above, this petition is disposed with a direction that upon the petitioner surrendering before the trial Court on the date fixed, i.e., 04.05.2018, she would be admitted to interim bail by that Court, as per its satisfaction, with the petitioner directed to produce the original medical certificate, a photocopy of which has been annexed with this petition as Annexure P-1.

The trial Court will fully satisfy itself whether the unfortunate disability of the petitioners' daughter continues even today or not and, if it is found that it actually does, the trial Court would then make the order of interim bail absolute, subject to its own satisfaction.

Disposed of.
