CORAM:- HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE JAISHREE THAKUR

Present:- Mr. Ishwan Singh, Advocate for Mr. Sarju Puri, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Rajni Gupta, Senior DAG Punjab.

JAISHREE THAKUR, J. (Oral)

This petition has been filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure seeking quashing of FIR No.180 dated 11.12.2017 registered under Section 498-A of Indian Penal Code at Police Station Rahon, District SBS Nagar (Annexure P/1) and all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom in view of the compromise (Annexure P/5).

The FIR has been registered on the statement of complainant-Pooja Rani on the allegations that after her marriage, the accused-petitioner started harassing her for the demand of dowry. Now with the intervention of respectable persons, the matter has been amicably compromised between the parties and they have resolved their disputes.

Notice of motion was issued in the matter, pursuant to which Mr. Jagatpal Singh Banwait, Advocate puts in appearance on behalf of complainant-respondent No.2 and files the power of attorney, which is taken on record and admits to the factum of compromise.

Learned counsel appearing on behalf of both the petitioner as well as complainant-respondent No.2 submit that pursuant to the compromise arrived at between the parties, marriage between the parties has already been dissolved by a decree of divorce by mutual consent under Section 13-B of Hindu Marriage Act on 30.11.2018 and all the terms and conditions of the compromise have been complied with. All the payments under the said compromise have been received by the complainant-respondent No.2. It is requested that since all the terms and conditions of the compromise have been complied with, instead of sending the parties before the trial court to get their statements regarding genuineness of the compromise, the FIR in question may be quashed, while taking into considering the compromise (Annexure P/5).

Keeping in view the facts that the parties have compromised the matter and all the terms of the compromise have been complied with and a decree of divorce under Section 13-B of Hindu Marriage Act has already been obtained, this court is of the considered view that it would a futile exercise, in case, the parties are now directed to appear before the trial court/Illaq Magistrate to get their statements recorded regarding genuineness of the compromise, which has already been acted upon in its entirety.

Learned State counsel also admits to the factum of compromise and submits that in case the parties have indeed settled their dispute, the State would have no objection to the quashing of the FIR, in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have gone through the record.

In a decision, based on compromise, none of the parties is a loser. Rather, a compromise not only brings peace and harmony between the parties to a dispute, but also restores tranquility in the society. After considering the nature of offences allegedly committed and the fact that both the parties have amicably settled their dispute, continuance of criminal prosecution would be an exercise in futility, as the chances of ultimate conviction are bleak.

Consequently, keeping in view the fact that the dispute has been amicably settled and in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Narinder Singh and others vs. State of Punjab and another, (2014) 6 SCC 466, this petition is allowed and FIR No.180 dated 11.12.2017 registered under Section 498-A of Indian Penal Code at Police Station Rahon, District SBS Nagar and all subsequent proceedings arising out of the same are quashed qua the petitioner herein.

The petition stands disposed of.
