Present petition has been filed seeking direction to respondents No. 3 to 5 to take the decision on the application moved by the petitioner to take action against the police officials as well as private respondents.

Learned State counsel has submitted that the petitioner is a habitual offendor having three cases registered against her. This fact was not even disclosed in the petition. It is further contended by the counsel that the petitioner herself has given in writing to the police on 06.02.2016 that she does not want any action against anyone. It is also pointed out by the counsel for the State that the car mentioned by the petitioner does not belong to the petitioner. As per the record, the car was found lying on the road. The car is still parked in the police station because the original car owner, namely Amit son of Sat Pal has not come to take possession of the car.

There is no representation on behalf of the petitioner to controvert these assertions made by the police. Earlier order also show that the case has been adjourned several times since the year, 2016.

In view of the above, no further orders are required in this case.

Dismissed.
