Decided on:-August 07, 2018.

Anu Sharma.

.....Petitioner.

Versus

State of Punjab.

.....Respondent.

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE HARI PAL VERMA.

Present:- Mr. Manjeet Singh, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr. Tanvir Joshi, AAG, Punjab.

HARI PAL VERMA, J. (ORAL)

Prayer in this petition filed under Section 482 Cr.PC is for quashing of the impugned order dated 16.03.2015 (Annexure P-35), whereby the petitioner was declared as a proclaimed absconder in FIR No.74 dated 06.06.2009 under Sections 406 and 420 IPC registered at Police Station Sirhind, District Fatehgarh Sahib.

Counsel for the petitioner has argued that the matter has been compromised between the parties. The complainant has received the total amount for which a settlement has been arrived at between the parties and the statement was made before the Court of Judicial Magistrate 1st Class, Fatehgarh Sahib on 15.03.2016. He has further argued that broadly, the allegations were made against the husband of the petitioner, namely, Krishan Mohan, but she was arrayed as an accused being the wife of Krishan Mohan.

He further contends that irrespective of the compromise so arrived at between the parties, the petitioner is ready to surrender before the trial Court and to face the trial in accordance with law. The very reason which constrained the petitioner from appearing before the trial Court was that she was required to attend her ailing mother, who unfortunately died in May, 2017. However, the petitioner with all sincerity is ready to surrender before the trial Court.

Heard.

In the background of the case when it was reported that the matter has been compromised between the parties for which attention of this Court has been drawn to the statement of complainant Ran Singh made before the learned Magistrate on 15.03.2016, the present petition is disposed of with a direction that in case the petitioner surrenders before the trial Court within a period of two weeks from today, the trial Court shall admit her on bail subject to her furnishing bail bonds and surety bonds to its entire satisfaction.

It is made clear that the trial Court may impose any other reasonable condition which it may deems fit in the peculiar circumstances of the case. In case the petitioner fails to surrender before the trial Court within the aforesaid period, the present petition shall be deemed to have been dismissed.
