A perusal of the written reply filed on behalf of the official respondents goes to show that a cancellation report has been prepared which has since been approved by the higher police officers, but is yet to be filed in the Court.

In view of the reply filed, the petition has become infructuous.

Learned counsel for the complainant states that as and when cancellation report is filed in the Court, he would prefer a protest petition.

Accordingly, the present petition stands disposed of having been rendered infructuous.
