CORAM : HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE AJAY TEWARI

Present : Mr. Vikas Kumar, Advocate for the appellants.

AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This appeal has been filed against the order of the Additional District Judge, Sirsa declining an application for grant of succession certificate.

At the time of filing the application, the appellants were minors who were brought up by their maternal grandfather. The main reason which weighed with the Court in declining the application was that once the father was alive the maternal grandfather could not have assumed guardianship and moved an application without even impleading the father.

Learned counsel states that today minors have attained the age of majority. In the circumstances, there is no bar for applying for whatever relief now in his own capacity but no fault can be found with the impugned judgment.

Consequently, the appeal stands dismissed with the aforesaid liberty.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending civil miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
