The prayer in this petition is for direction of running of sentences concurrently.

Reply has been filed on behalf of Superintendent of Jail, Central Jail-I, Hisar in Court today and the same is taken on record.

The learned amicus curiae submits that the petitioner has already moved an application under Section 427 Cr.P.C for concurrence of sentence in the pending appeal and thus, the present application for the same relief filed through the Jail Department, is not maintainable.
