LISA GILL, J.

Prayer in this petition is for quashing of FIR No. 65 dated 10.11.2016 under Sections 498A, 406 IPC registered at Police Station Women Cell, District Amritsar alongwith consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of a compromise arrived at between the parties.

The abovesaid FIR was registered at the instance of respondent No.2 due to matrimonial discord with her husband - petitioner. It is informed that petition under Section 13B of Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 filed by the petitioner and respondent No. 2 has since been allowed on 09.01.2018. The entire settled amount has been received by respondent No. 2.

This Court on 03.11.2017 directed the parties to appear before learned trial court/Illaq Magistrate for recording their statements in respect to the above-mentioned compromise. Learned trial court/Illaq Magistrate was directed to submit a report regarding the genuineness of the compromise, as to whether it has been arrived at out of the free will and volition of the parties without any coercion, fear or undue influence. Learned trial court/Illaq Magistrate was also directed to intimate whether the petitioner is absconding/proclaimed offender and whether any other case is pending against him. Information was sought as to whether all affected persons are a party to the settlement.

Pursuant to order dated 03.11.2017, the parties appeared before the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Amritsar and their statements were recorded on 18.12.2017. Respondent No.2 stated that she has compromised the matter with the accused petitioner out of her own free will, without any pressure and coercion. Respondent No.2 stated that she has no objection to the quashing of the abovesaid FIR qua the petitioner. Statement of the petitioner in respect to the compromise was also recorded.

As per report dated 19.01.2018 received from the learned Chief Judicial Magistrate, Amritsar, satisfaction is expressed that the compromise between the parties is genuine, arrived at without any kind of pressure on any of the parties. The petitioner is not reported to be a proclaimed offender. Statements of the parties are appended alongwith the said report.

Learned counsel for respondent No.2 reaffirms and verifies the factum of settlement between the parties. It is reiterated that respondent No.2 has no objection to the quashing of the abovementioned FIR against the petitioners.

Learned counsel for the State submits that as the abovesaid FIR arises out of a matrimonial dispute, the State has no objection to the quashing of this FIR on the basis of a settlement arrived at between the parties.

In Kulwinder Singh and others versus State of Punjab and another 2007 (3) R.C.R. (Criminal) 1052, a five member Bench of this Court has observed as under:-

“The compromise, in a modern society, is the sine qua non of harmony and orderly behaviour. It is the soul of justice and if the power under Section 482 of the Criminal Procedure Code is used to enhance such a compromise which, in turn, enhances the social amity and reduces friction, then it truly is “finest hour of justice”.

The Hon'ble Supreme Court in B.S.Joshi and others v. State of Haryana, 2003(4) SCC 675 has observed that it becomes the duty of the Court to encourage genuine settlements of matrimonial disputes.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of this case, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovesaid FIR as no useful purpose would be served by continuance of the present proceedings. It will merely lead to wastage of precious time of the court and would be an exercise in futility.

This petition is, thus, allowed and FIR No. 65 dated 10.11.2016 under Sections 498A, 406 IPC registered at Police Station Women Cell, District Amritsar alongwith all consequential proceedings are, hereby, quashed.
