Versus

State of Punjab

... Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE GURVINDER SINGH GILL

Present:- Mr. Sanjiv Kumar Aggarwal, Advocate, for the petitioner.

Mr. A.S.Sandhu, Addl. A.G, Punjab.

GURVINDER SINGH GILL, J. (Oral)

The petitioner who has been summoned with the aid of Section 319 Cr.P.C. seeks grant of anticipatory bail.

While the police had declared him innocent and had kept him in column No.2, the learned trial Court has chosen to summon the petitioner with the aid of Section 319 Cr.PC. It is mainly on the ground that co-accused Balkaran Singh during interrogation had stated that he had procured the intoxicating powder from the shop run by the petitioner in Sangria (Rajasthan), that he has been summoned.

Pursuant to interim directions issued by this Court, the petitioner has surrendered before the learned trial Court and has been released on interim bail.

Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case, in my opinion it is a fit case for grant of anticipatory bail. The petition is as such accepted and the interim directions issued vide order dated 29.6.2018 are made absolute subject to the condition that the petitioner would appear before the learned trial Court regularly and abide by any other condition as may be imposed by the learned trial Court.

The petition is accepted in the above mentioned terms.
