ANITA CHAUDHRY, J(ORAL)

The petitioner has challenged the order passed by the Magistrate whereby conditional warrants were issued.

A sum of Rs.50,000/- has been deposited with the Registry as arrears of maintenance.

The counsel for the respondent informs that the order has been challenged in a revision which is pending before the Additional Sessions Judge. Since the revision is pending, the only directions which are required to be passed are that the amount paid here would be adjusted towards maintenance. Efforts would be made by the Revisional Court to decide the revision as expeditiously as it can.

The petition is disposed off.
