Learned counsel for the petitioner confines his prayer only to the quashing of order dated 6.11.2015 (Annexure P2), whereby the petitioner was declared proclaimed offender by learned Sub Divisional Judicial Magistrate, Balachaur.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that he has approached this Court for quashing of FIR and only before this Court, he came to know that he has been declared proclaimed offender. He undertakes to surrender before the trial Court.

In these circumstances, the petitioner is directed to surrender before the trial Court within one week and file an application for grant of regular bail. Regular bail application if so filed shall be decided within three days. The petitioner shall not be arrested for the next two weeks to enable him to approach the superior Court if his bail application is dismissed.

The present petition is disposed of accordingly.
