The petitioner is seeking regular bail in FIR No. 207 dated 30.04.2018, registered under Section 376-D of IPC at Police Station Sector 10-A, Gurugram.

Counsel for the petitioner contends that false case has been registered and the investigation is over and challan has been presented and the petitioner is in custody since 30.04.2018. It was urged that the FIR was lodged with a delay.

The allegations are that the victim used to work for the petitioner and make food for the wedding parties. Some amount was due to her, which had not been paid. With a promise to pay the amount the victim was taken but on the way the accused consumed liquor and took the victim to the road side and raped her.
