Date of decision : February 14, 2018

Harminder Singh and another

.....Petitioners

Versus

State of Punjab and another

....Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE LISA GILL

Present: Mr. Puneet Sharma, Advocate for Mr. Sandeep Arora, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Sukhleen Singh, AAG, Punjab

Mr. G.S. Rawat, Advocate for respondent No.2.

LISA GILL, J.

Prayer in this petition is for quashing of FIR No. 21 dated 22.02.2013 under Sections 406, 498A IPC registered at Police Station Women Cell Jalandhar and all other consequential proceedings arising therefrom on the basis of a compromise arrived at between the parties.

The abovesaid FIR was registered at the instance of respondent No.2 due to matrimonial discord with her husband i.e., petitioner No.1. It is informed by learned counsel for the petitioners as well as respondent No. 2 that petition under Section 13B of Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 has since been allowed. Nothing remains due towards respondent No. 2. The present petition has been filed on the basis of this compromise.

This Court on 05.09.2017 directed the parties to appear before learned trial court for recording their statements in respect to the above-mentioned compromise. Learned trial court was directed to submit a report regarding the genuineness of the compromise, as to whether it has been arrived at out of the free will and volition of the parties without any coercion, fear or undue influence. Learned trial court was also directed to intimate whether any of the petitioners are absconding/proclaimed offenders and whether any other case is pending against them. Information was sought as to whether all affected persons are a party to the settlement.

Pursuant to order dated 05.09.2017, the parties appeared before the learned Judicial Magistrate First Class, Jalandhar and their statements were recorded on 15.09.2017. Respondent No.2 stated that the matter has been compromised by her out of her own free will, without any pressure, coercion and undue influence and she has no objection to the quashing of the abovesaid FIR qua both the petitioners. Statements of the petitioners in respect to the compromise were also recorded.

As per report dated 19.09.2017 received from the learned Judicial Magistrate First Class, Jalandhar, satisfaction is expressed that the compromise between the parties is genuine, arrived at out of free will of the parties, without any force and pressure. None of the petitioners is reported to be a proclaimed offender. Statements of the parties are appended alongwith the said report.

Learned counsel for respondent No.2 reaffirms and verifies the factum of settlement between the parties. It is reiterated that respondent No.2 has no objection to the quashing of the abovementioned FIR against the petitioners.

Learned counsel for the State submits that as the abovesaid FIR arises out of a matrimonial dispute, the State has no objection to the quashing of this FIR on the basis of a settlement arrived at between the parties.

In Kulwinder Singh and others versus State of Punjab and another 2007 (3) R.C.R. (Criminal) 1052, a five member Bench of this Court has observed as under:-

“The compromise, in a modern society, is the sine qua non of harmony and orderly behaviour. It is the soul of justice and if the power under Section 482 of the Criminal Procedure Code is used to enhance such a compromise which, in turn, enhances the social amity and reduces friction, then it truly is “finest hour of justice”.

The Hon'ble Supreme Court in B.S.Joshi and others v. State of Haryana, 2003(4) SCC 675 has observed that it becomes the duty of the Court to encourage genuine settlements of matrimonial disputes.

Keeping in view the facts and circumstances of this case, it would be in the interest of justice to quash the abovesaid FIR as no useful purpose would be served by continuance of the present proceedings. It will merely lead to wastage of precious time of the court and would be an exercise in futility.

This petition is, thus, allowed and FIR No. 21 dated 22.02.2013 under Sections 406, 498A IPC registered at Police Station Women Cell Jalandhar alongwith all consequential proceedings are, hereby, quashed.
