Report of the Medical Board has been received, which does not provide the complete information whether the petitioner is able to move, speak or understand and whether he would be able to face trial & make defence. The medical report is of no help.

Counsel for the petitioner says that the petitioner was earlier granted interim bail, which was up to 01.07.2018 and subsequently no extension was granted and he is ready to appear before the Court below.

Petitioner be produced before the Court below on 27.08.2018. He will produce his medical record. Meanwhile, interim bail is granted to the petitioner and can approach the Court and apply for regular bail. It is for the trial Court to decide if he can undergo the trial.

The petition is disposed off.
