Learned State counsel, on instructions from ASI Amarjit Singh, states that as a result of enquiry conducted by SP (D), Tarn Taran, petitioners - Dilbagh Singh and Paramjit Singh, have been found to be innocent, as such they are not required to be arrested in this case at this stage.

Learned counsel for the petitioners submits that some protection be provided to the petitioners because if at any stage they are required to be arrested, then advance notice be given to them.

Learned State counsel submits that if as a result of further investigation, the petitioners are required to be arrested, then 7 days notice in writing, would be given to them.

Faced with this situation, learned counsel for the petitioners states that he be permitted to withdraw both the petitions.
