Mini

...Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana

...Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR.JUSTICE H.S.MADAAN

Present: Mr.Shiv Kumar, Advocate for the petitioner.

Mr.Neeraj Poswal, AAG, Haryana.

H.S. MADAAN, J.

This petition for regular bail has been filed by petitioner –
Mini – an accused in FIR No.802 dated 19.10.2016, under Sections 346
IPC (Sections 302, 201, 34 IPC added on 19.12.2016), registered with Police Station Section -55, Faridabad.

As per the facts of the case, originally Amar Singh son of Shankar Singh, resident of House No.73, Sanjay Colony, Ballabgharh, Faridabad had submitted an application to SHO, Police Station Sector-55, Faridabad contending therein that his brother Kishan Singh alias Mannu, aged 23 years had gone to his in-laws house at Subhash Colony, Ballabgharh on 7.10.2016, reached there but he did not return; that all the efforts to search for him proved futile. After registration of the FIR, the matter was investigated, however, Kishan Singh @ Mannu could not be located. On 19.12.2016, complainant Amar Singh submitted another application that his brother aforesaid had been murdered by Mini (present petitioner) with the help of Rajesh son of Shyam Lal, resident of Khurja, U.P., Deepak son of Mahi Pal, resident of Jeewan Nagar, Gaunchi inasmuch after committing the offence on 8.10.2016, they had disposed of the body in the forest located in the State of U.P. As such, offences under Sections 302 and 201 IPC read with Section 34 IPC were added. Accused Mini was arrested. After completion of investigation and other formalities, challan against the accused has been filed in the Court. The accused/petitioner had filed an application for regular bail in the Court of Sessions, which was declined by learned Additional Sessions Judge, Faridabad vide order dated 18.8.2017, as such, she has approached this Court with same request.

Notice of the petition was given to respondent – State and counsel representing the State has put in appearance.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties besides going through the record and I find that no ground is made out to grant regular bail to the petitioner. The allegations against the petitioner are very serious and grave of committing murder of her husband with the help of her co-accused Rajesh and Deepak and then disposing of the dead body in the forest of U.P. During the course of investigation, some human bones are said to have been recovered at the instance of Rajesh and Deepak, co-accused of the present petitioner. Petitioner Mini is also said to have cleaned blood from the floor of the room where her husband had been murdered. The guilt of the accused shall be determined during the trial which is going on. The apprehension expressed by the State counsel that if petitioner is granted bail, there is every likelihood to her absconding and even tampering with the prosecution evidence cannot be brushed aside lightly.

Therefore, finding no merit in the petition, the same stands dismissed.
