State counsel informs that this petition was for transfer of the investigation whereas challan has already been presented on 30.06.2016. State counsel further informs that the son of the petitioners has been declared proclaimed offender.

Limited notice was given in this case to see if there was a possibility of an amicable settlement between the parties. On the last date, the counsel for the petitioners had sought time to take instructions as to when the son of the petitioners intended to come back to India. Since settlement cannot be effected, the present petition has been rendered infructuous.
