Gurmeet KaurPetitioner

Versus

State of PunjabRespondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAMENDRA JAIN

Present: - Mr. GS Sidhu, Advocate, for the petitioner.

RAMENDRA JAIN, J. (ORAL)

Prayer in the instant petition under Section 438 Cr.P.C. has been made for grant of anticipatory bail to petitioner Gurmeet Kaur in a case arising from FIR No.62 dated 16.06.2018 under Sections 384/506/120-B IPC, registered at Police Station Bhadaur, District Barnala.

According to the prosecution, the petitioner along with her accomplice running a gang of cheating and robbing innocent people by adopting a new modus operandi of laying them in their trap through petitioner, who by gathering contact number of public persons, taking advantage of her female character, contact and call them at her place, in conspiracy with each other and thereafter, blackmail, rob and cheat them by giving beatings and extending threat to viral their objectionable video to falsely implicate them in some case. In this manner, the petitioner extorted the complainant.

Learned counsel for the petitioner inter alia contends that the petitioner has falsely been implicated. She is innocent. No recovery has to be effected from her. There is delay of one month in lodging FIR against the petitioner. The petitioner is not required for any custodial interrogation.

In view of totality of facts and circumstances of the case, the petitioner does not deserve any concession of anticipatory bail, inasmuch as her custodial interrogation is necessary.

Dismissed.
