Counsel for the parties have been heard.

Petitioner was arrested on 01.07.2016.

Investigation in the case is complete and challan stands presented and even charges have been framed.

It has gone uncontroverted that the complainant has already been examined before the trial Court.

Trial would take time to conclude.

Even though, prayer in the petition was opposed on the ground that the petitioner is involved in other FIRs containing similar allegations, but counsel representing the petitioner has apprised the Court that the petitioner is on bail in other proceedings.

Without making any observations on merit, petition is allowed.
