AT CHANDIGARH

CRM-M No.4077 of 2018

Date of Decision: 21.03.2018

KULDEEP SINGH AND ANOTHER

.....Petitioners

Vs

STATE OF PUNJAB

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE RAJ MOHAN SINGH

Present:Mr. Vishal Sharma, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. Hittan Nehra, Addl. A.G., Punjab.

Mr. Vishal Garg, Advocate for the complainant.

RAJ MOHAN SINGH, J. (Oral)

On 05.02.2018, following order was passed by this

Court:-

“At the very outset, learned counsel for the petitioners submits that prayer for anticipatory bail on behalf of petitioner No.1 namely Kuldeep Singh has become infructuous as he has already been arrested. Ordered accordingly.

Learned counsel for the petitioners contends that petitioner No.1 was an alleged mediator for sending Prince Chawla to Canada and an amount of Rs.30 lacs was allegedly paid to Gaurav Sood in the presence of the petitioners. Instead of sending son of the complainant to Canada, he was first send to Malaysia and then to Thailand. Ultimately, son of the complainant was asked to return to India. When the amount was asked for from the accused and on their refusal, a complaint was filed by Kuldeep Singh in which there was a compromise and three cheques were given to Kuldeep Singh by Gaurav Sood. The cheques were dishonoured and complaints under Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act are statedly pending against Gaurav Sood. The complainant was one of the signatory to the aforesaid compromise. Thereafter, in respect of some occurrence relating to injuries on the person of Jaswinder Singh, Kulwinder Kaur has given a complaint against Prince Chawla and others. Kulwinder Kaur is daughter-in-law of paternal uncle of Kuldeep Singh. In the said incident also, a compromise was effected.

Learned counsel states that the complainant took ill of that and the present case was registered.

Notice of motion for 21.03.2018.

In the meanwhile, petitioner No.2 is directed to appear before the SHO/Investigating Officer on 09.02.2018 at 11.00 A.M. to join investigation and in the event of his arrest, he shall be enlarged on ad interim bail, subject to the satisfaction of Arresting Officer. However, petitioner No.2 shall abide by the conditions as envisaged under Section 438(2) Cr.P.C.

Mr. Vishal Garg, Advocate, appears on behalf of the complainant.”

Evidently after registration of the case, there was a compromise between the parties to which the complainant was one of the signatory. As per that compromise, three cheques were given by Gaurav Sood in favour of Kuldeep Singh. On presentation those cheques were dishonoured and in respect of two cheques complaints filed by Kuldeep Singh are statedly pending.

Prayer for anticipatory bail qua Kuldeep Singh was withdrawn as he has already been arrested.

At this stage, without meaning anything on merits of the case, I am of the view that interim order dated 05.02.2018 qua petitioner No.2-Chand Singh needs to be confirmed. Ordered accordingly.

Petition stands disposed of.
