CORAM: HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE JAISHREE THAKUR

Present: Ms. Sunita Gupta, Advocate, for Mr. A.S. Kalra, Advocate, for the petitioners.

Mr. P. P. Chahar, DAG, Haryana.

JAISHREE THAKUR, J. (ORAL)

This is a petition that has been filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. for quashing of FIR No. 519 dated 28.08.2016 under Sections 363 & 366 IPC and Section 3 of SC & ST Act, registered at Police Station Samalkha, District Panipat.

Learned counsel for the petitioners herein would contend that this is a case of false implication since the prosecutrix, her father and others have furnished an affidavit stating that they would have no objection in case the said FIR is quashed.

Learned counsel for the petitioners would argue that as per the affidavit that has been filed, the complainant admits to a marriage being solemnized between Manjit, petitioner No.1 and his daughter, without any pressure from anybody. It is also argued that the deponent would have no objection with the marriage and had got the FIR registered due to misunderstanding.

Learned counsel for the respondent-State submits that the matter has been investigated, challan has been presented and charges have already been framed.

In view of the aforesaid submissions and keeping in mind that author of the affidavit, namely the complainant is not a party to these proceedings, thus, genuineness of the affidavit cannot be affirmed.

In view of the above, the instant petition is being disposed of by giving liberty to the parties concerned to make any statements in evidence as and when required.
