Learned State counsel submits that as a result of investigation, the police has filed challan against Harpl Singh @ Sonu, whereas other persons named in the FIR have been found to be innocent.

There is no representation on behalf of the petitioner.

Similar was the position on the last date of hearing.

In the petition, the prayer for that despite registration of the FIR, final report had not been presented. However, now the needful has been done by the local police.

Therefore, the present petition has become infructuous and is dismissed accordingly.
