Notice of motion.

2.) On the asking of the Court, Mr. R.K. Doon, AAG, Haryana accepts notice on behalf of the official respondents No.1 to 3. Mr. Bhaskar Sharma, Advocate appears on behalf of respondent Nos.4 to 8. Learned counsel for the petitioners is hereby directed to furnish 3 sets of the paper book each to the learned State counsel as well as counsel for respondent Nos.4 to 8, during the course of the day.

3.) In the instant petition, petitioners have sought for a direction to the official respondents for protection of their life and liberty and not to interfere in their peaceful married life at the behest of respondent Nos.4 to 8 and other relatives and friends.

4.) Learned counsel for respondent Nos.4 to 8 sought time in the morning so as to enable respondent No.4 to convince first petitioner. It seems that same was not materialized. Consequently, he had instruction from respondent Nos.4 to 8 that they would not harm both the petitioners. In view of the aforesaid submission, question of extending protection of life and liberty to the petitioners from the hands of parents of first petitioner do not arise. At the same time, if there is any threat to the petitioners, in that event, petitioners are permitted to make necessary application to respondent Nos.1 to 3.

5.) Petitioners are stated to be major. On 9.10.2018, petitioners got married at Shri Balaji Jyotish (Centre) Mandir, Mata Mansa Devi Market, Panchkula according to Hindu rites and ceremonies with their own sweet will and without any pressure.

6.) The grievance of the petitioners is that respondent Nos.4 to 8 are not happy with the marriage. The petitioners apprehending that there is a threat to their life and liberty from respondent Nos.4 to 8 due to petitioners' marriage, preferred a representation to the Superintendent of Police, Jind, District Jind dated 09.10.2018 (Annexure P-5). Insofar as giving protection of the married couple, Hon'ble the Apex Court examined.

Interference by the police in conjugal life; the Apex Court in the case of Lata Singh versus State of U.P. reported in (2006)5 SCC 475 held as follows:-

“The caste system is a curse on the nation and the sooner it is destroyed the better. In fact, it is dividing the nation at a time when we have to be united to face the challenges before the nation unitedly. Hence, inter-caste marriages are in fact in the national interest as they will result in destroying the caste system. However, disturbing news are coming from several parts of the country that young men and women who undergo inter-caste marriage, are threatened with violence, or violence is actually committed on them. In our opinion, such acts of violence or threats or harassment are wholly illegal and those who commit them must be severely punished. This is a free and democratic country, and once a person becomes a major he or she can marry whosoever he/she likes. If the parents of the boy or girl do not approve of such inter-caste or inter-religious marriage the maximum they can do is that they can cut off social relations with the son or the daughter, but they cannot give threats or commit or instigate acts of violence and cannot harass the person who undergoes such inter-caste or interreligious marriage. We, therefore, direct that the administration/police authorities throughout the country will see to it that if any boy or girl who is a major undergoes intercaste or inter-religious marriage with a woman or man who is a major, the couple are not harassed by any one nor subjected to threats or acts of violence, and any one who gives such threats or harasses or commits acts of violence either himself or at his instigation, is taken to task by instituting criminal proceedings by the police against such persons and further stern action is taken against such persons as provided by law”.

In terms of the Supreme Court observation, the official respondents are directed to examine the representation (Annexures P-5) of the petitioners and to give necessary protection while appreciating the fact that there is threat to their life. Petitioners are present in Court. Second petitioner undertakes to deposit a sum of ₹ 2,00,000/- in the form of F.D.R. in the Nationalized Bank for a period of 3 years in the name of first petitioner – Sheetal Rani within a period of 3 months from today. Second Court within a period of 3 months from today. In case he fails to do so, Registry is directed to list this matter on 08.02.2019. This order shall not validate the marriage of the petitioners.

7.) Accordingly, the petition is disposed of.
