CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE A.B. CHAUDHARI

Present: Mr. Inderpal Singh Parmar, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. H.S. Sullar, DAG, Punjab.

Mr. Naresh Choudhari, Advocate for respondent No.2.

A.B. CHAUDHARI, J (Oral)

This is a second petition for grant of anticipatory bail in FIR No.343 dated 14.12.2016, registered under Sections 308, 325, 341, 506, 148 & 149 of Indian Penal Code, at Police Station Jodhewal, Ludhiana.

Counsel for the petitioner as well as counsel for the complainant, both are present with the complainant. They have invited my attention to the deed of compromise (Annexure P-4) by way of affidavit in respect of FIR in question. Counsel for both the parties, who are present before this Court, make a statement that now the compromise has been arrived at between the complainant and the accused persons. Out of four accused persons, two petitioners herein are claiming relief of anticipatory bail by way of present second petition.

Admittedly, respondent No.2 had set the criminal law in motion because of the assault made by the petitioners and as such the police was required to move. Now there is a compromise that has been arrived at between the parties.

In that view of the matter, anticipatory bail is granted to the petitioners in FIR No.343 dated 14.12.2016, registered under Sections 308, 325, 341, 506, 148 & 149 of Indian Penal Code, at Police Station Jodhewal, Ludhiana, subject to the petitioners No.1 & 2 are depositing a non-refundable amount of Rs.15,000/- each with the Office of Commissioner of Police, Ludhiana to be forfeited to the State of Punjab. This amount shall be deposited within a period of four weeks from today. In default, the police will be at liberty to arrest the petitioners.
