CORAM:- HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE JAISHREE THAKUR

Present:- Mr. Karan Singh, Advocate for the petitioners.

Mr. P.P. Chahar, DAG Haryana.

Mr. Virender Soni, Advocate for respondent No.2.

JAISHREE THAKUR, J. (Oral)

This petition has been filed under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure seeking quashing of FIR No.5 dated 11.01.2017 registered under Sections 323, 34, 354(a)(1), 506 of Indian Penal Code at Police Station Women Yamuna Nagar, District Yamuna Nagar (Annexure P/1) and all subsequent proceedings arising therefrom in view of the compromise arrived at between the parties (Annexure P/2).

The FIR has been registered on the statement of complainant-Urvashi on the allegations that the accused-petitioners used to tease her daily and also passed wrong comments. Now with the intervention of respectable persons, the matter has been amicably compromised between the parties and they have resolved their disputes and differences.

Keeping in view the fact that the parties have entered into a compromise, they were directed to appear before the trial court/Illaq Magistrate for getting their statements recorded in support of the compromise. In pursuance of the direction, a report has been received from Judicial Magistrate First Class at Jagadhri, stating that the compromise arrived at between the parties is without any pressure or coercion from any one and the same is genuine one.

Learned State counsel, on instructions from the Investigating Officer and learned counsel for the complainant-respondent No.2 admit to the factum of compromise and submit that in case the parties have indeed settled their dispute, the State would have no objection to the quashing of the FIR, in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties and have gone through the record.

In a decision, based on compromise, none of the parties is a loser. Rather, a compromise not only brings peace and harmony between the parties to a dispute, but also restores tranquility in the society. After considering the nature of offences allegedly committed and the fact that both the parties have amicably settled their dispute, continuance of criminal prosecution would be an exercise in futility, as the chances of ultimate conviction are bleak.

Consequently, keeping in view the fact that the dispute has been amicably settled and in view of the law laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Gian Singh Versus State of Punjab and another, 2012 (4) RCR (Cr.) 543, this petition is allowed and FIR No.5 dated 11.01.2017 registered under Sections 323, 34, 354(a)(1), 506 of Indian Penal Code at Police Station Women Yamuna Nagar, District Yamuna Nagar and all subsequent proceedings arising out of the same are quashed qua the petitioner(s).

The petition stands disposed of.
