Present petition has been filed for seeking bail pending trial in FIR No.84, dated 08.07.2018 for the offences punishable under Sections 452/326/324/379/427/506/148/149 IPC registered at Police Station Sadar, District Gurdaspur.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that even as per the case of the prosecution, the petitioner is attributed only a simple injury. It is further contended that the petitioner is in custody since 13.09.2018. There is no other case against the petitioner. Investigation of the case is already complete. Therefore, petitioner is no more required for any further investigation of the case. It is further contended that co-accused of the petitioner has already been released on bail.

On the other hand, learned State counsel, being instructed by ASI Mohal Lal submits that the petitioner is attributed a head injury, therefore, he does not deserve to be released on bail. However, he does not dispute the fact that the co-accused of the petitioner is already on bail and that the challan has already been presented in the case.

In view of the above, but without commenting upon the merits of the case, the petition is allowed. Petitioner is granted the concession of bail pending trial. He be released on bail pending trial subject to furnishing bail bonds/surety to the satisfaction of the Trial Court/Duty Magistrate.
