.....Petitioner

Versus

Kirat

.... Respondent

CORAM : HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE FATEH DEEP SINGH

Present : Petitioner in person alongwith
 Mr. R.S. Rai, Advocate assisted by Mr. Gautam Dutt, Advocate.

Respondent in person with
 Mr. Ravish Bansal, Advocate

FATEH DEEP SINGH, J. (Oral)

In continuation of efforts reflected in the previous order dated 13.12.2018 and upon the intervention of this Court, the parties, i.e. Simrat Singh Dhillon and Kirat have agreed to settle their dispute in full and final payment of Rs.68,00,000/-, which will be paid by husband-Simrat Singh Dhillon to wife-Kirat and as per the settlement made, a sum of Rs.25,00,000/- would be paid through bank draft in her name within 15 days from today in the Court and on payment of this first installment, the couple will get their divorce petition under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act 1955 pending in a Court at Mohali converted to divorce petition by way of mutual consent under Section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act and upon filing of the same, balance amount of Rs.43,00,000/- would be paid by the husband to the respondent wife within two months thereafter in the Court at the time of the culmination of the divorce proceedings.

The parties have undertaken that all proceedings be it civil or criminal pending as on date between the parties would be withdrawn and that no claim whatsoever civil or criminal would be initiated by any of them arising out of this marriage against each other.

Respondent wife-Kirat has further made a statement before this Court that she will not give effect to order dated 17.03.2018, which is under challenge before this Court and that she will withdraw her maintenance application as well and would not claim any arrears thereafter. The parties have undertaken that a sum of Rs.2,37,500/- so deposited in the Registry of this Court may be refunded to the petitioner as per Rules. The amount of arrears already paid would not be claimed by the husband for adjustment in the present settlement. The parties shall be bound by their statements.

In the light of this stand and settlement, the petitioner has made statement withdrawing the present petition, however, reserving the rights of the petitioner to move afresh to this Court in case of any future eventuality, if so arises out of the violation of the terms of this settlement.

Disposed off, accordingly.
