KULDIP SINGH, J. (ORAL)

Heard.

4 kilograms of heroine was recovered from fields near the International Border, adjoining Pakistan. Initially, one Balwinder Singh, was arrested. However, on investigation, he was declared innocent and discharged. It came in investigation that present petitioner alongwith one Kuldip Singh is owner of said heroine.

The learned counsel for petitioner contends that petitioner was not in conscious possession as nothing was recovered from him.

I am of the view that on the International Border, adjoining Pakistan, this is modus operandi of smugglers that contraband is thrown in fields. It was later on recovered by Border Security Force. The investigation in matter is still pending. Police is yet to collect evidence about petitioner being co owner of said heroine. It being so, at this stage, there is no ground to grant regular bail to petitioner.

In view of matter, petition is dismissed.
