AMOL RATTAN SINGH, J. (Oral)

The petitioner having been in custody for almost 6 months, with the charge also still not having been framed despite the fact that on the last date the matter had been adjourned for that purpose only, and the allegation being abetment to suicide, without making any comment on merits for or against the petitioner, I consider it appropriate to admit him to bail, upon his furnishing adequate bail and surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court.
