CRM-M-49146-2017

After arguing for some time, learned counsel for the him liberty to take all the pleas before the trial Court. He further states that since the petitioner is aged about 70 years, his personal appearance in the Court be exempted.

Dismissed as withdrawn with liberty aforesaid.

As regards the exemption from personal appearance, the trial Court may consider the request sympathetically on such application having been filed and may exempt personal appearance of the petitioner allowing him to appear through counsel unless appearance of the petitioner is found necessary during the trial.
