Versus

State of Haryana

...Respondent

CORAM:- HON'BLE MS. JUSTICE JAISHREE THAKUR

Present:- Mr. Deepak Basatia, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Gaganpreet Kaur, AAG, Haryana.

JAISHREE THAKUR, J. (Oral)

The instant petition has been filed under Section 439 Cr. P.C. for grant of regular bail to the petitioner in case FIR No.136 dated 10.09.2018, under Sections 498-A, 323, 377, 506 of Indian Penal Code, registered at Police Station Radaur, District Yamuna Nagar.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner herein was taken into custody in the aforesaid FIR on 21.10.2018. It is submitted that the petitioner has been falsely implicated in the present case. It is also contended that the investigation in the matter is complete and the challan has been presented and that the conclusion of the trial would take time, therefore, the petitioner is entitled to be enlarged on bail.

Per contra, learned counsel appearing on behalf of respondent-

State, on instructions from the Investigating Officer, opposes the grant of regular bail to the petitioner, while submitting that offences alleged against the petitioner are serious in nature, however, she does not dispute the fact that the challan has been presented and the investigation in the matter is complete and that the custodial interrogation is no more required.

I have heard learned counsel for the parties.

Since, the trial is likely to take some time and in view of the facts that that the petitioner herein has been in custody since 21.10.2018 and that the investigation in the matter is complete and the challan has been presented and that the custodial interrogation of the petitioner is no more required, no useful purpose would be served in keeping the petitioner behind bars. At this stage, without commenting on the merits of the case, the instant petition is allowed and the petitioner is directed to be released on regular bail on execution of adequate personal bond and surety bond to the satisfaction of concerned trial Court/Duty Magistrate.
