

In the High Court of Punjab and Haryana at Chandigarh

Crl. Misc. No. M-51134 of 2018

Date of Decision: 27.11.2018

Rajni

.....Petitioner

Versus

State of Punjab

.....Respondent

CORAM: HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE ANITA CHAUDHRY

Present: Mr. C.S.Rana, Advocate for the petitioner.

Ms. Jaspreet Kaur, AAG, Punjab.

ANITA CHAUDHRY, J

The petitioner is seeking regular bail in FIR No. 0129 dated 16.7.2018 registered at Police Station Division No. 1, Jalandhar under Sections 304-B, 34 IPC.

Counsel for the petitioner contends that petitioner is the unmarried sister-in-law and challan has been presented. The counsel further states that though the incident is within one year of the marriage but there is no specific role given to the petitioner. Counsel also submits that the deceased was undergoing treatment on the day the incident occurred and a test had been conducted and they have placed copies on record.

Investigation is over. Challan has been presented. The petitioner is the unmarried sister-in-law. The allegations against her in the FIR are that she in connivance with the other family members had killed Samita.

The trial would take time. Without commenting anything on the merits of the case, the petition is allowed and the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on her furnishing bail/surety bonds to the satisfaction of the trial Court/Duty Magistrate.
