KULDIP SINGH, J. (ORAL)

Heard. It comes out that petitioner was an accused in a complaint filed under Section 138 of Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881. On behalf of petitioner accused, power of attorney was filed in Court and case was adjourned for 7.5.2018 for appearance of accused, but neither accused, nor his counsel appeared in Court. Consequently, his non bailable warrants were issued. Therefore, on next date also, accused did not appear and consequently, proclamation was issued and he was ultimately declared a proclaimed person. It goes to show that due to non appearance before trial Court, he was declared a proclaimed person.

In these circumstances, petitioner is directed to surrender before trial Court within three days and move an application for grant of regular bail. Application, if so, filed before trial Court, same will be decided within two days after issuing notice to counsel for complainant.

Disposed of.
