MAIN CASE

The instant petition is for quashing of FIR No. 03 dated the basis of written compromise arrived at between the parties.

Crl. Misc. No.M-8252 of 2017 (O&M)

2

Report has been received from the trial Court after statements of the parties were recorded regarding the compromise. The trial Court has reported that the compromise is voluntary and without any pressure or coercion. The trial Court has also sent copy of statements of parties and the compromise Ex. P-1.

Learned counsel for the petitioner says that necessary arrangements have been made and the amount of Rs.15,000/- would automatically be transferred in the account of respondent no.2 from the account of the petitioner every month. An affidavit in this regard has also been furnished by the petitioner and therefore, the FIR may be quashed.

No useful purpose would be served to keep the FIR pending.

In view of the statements and report of the trial Court and the principles laid down by the Full Bench judgment of this Court in Kulwinder Singh and others Vs. State of Punjab and another, 2007(3) RCR (Criminal) 1052, approved by Hon'ble Apex Court in Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and others (2012) 10 SCC 303, the instant petition is allowed and the aforesaid FIR and all consequent proceedings conducted on the basis thereof are quashed qua the petitioners.

Needless to say that parties shall remain bound by the terms of compromise and their statements made in the Court below.
