KRISHNA MURARI, C.J. (ORAL)

The parties are not at issue that the scheme for centralized counselling has been introduced for admission in the affiliated colleges.

2. Thus, the relief claimed is rendered infructuous and the petition accordingly stands dismissed.

3. At this stage, learned counsel for the petitioner pointed out that the issue of fee structure has also been raised which we find has also been raised in a subsequent writ petition being CWP-26235-2017, wherein the centralized counselling system introduced is under challenge and this issue can be examined in that petition. Hence, there is no reason to keep the present petition alive.

4. In view of the above fact and the statement of learned counsel for the petitioner, the petition stands dismissed.
