JASPAL SINGH, J. (ORAL)

At the very outset of the arguments, it has emerged that during the pendency of instant petition, vide letter No.403/ANG dated August 11, 2016, the matter was ordered to be dealt with and disposed of in terms of judgment captioned as Harbans Lal vs. The State of Punjab & ors. passed in CWP No.2371 of 2010, decided on August 31, 2010, which was ordered to be implemented and subsequent thereto, the necessary benefits have been given but no interest has been paid. As far as the main relief is concerned, instant petition has become infructuous and be disposed of .

In view of above, instant petition stands disposed of.

However, petitioner shall be at liberty to have recourse to the remedies available under law including filing of fresh civil writ petition, if she still aggrieved with regard to grant of interest on the delayed payments.
