Present: Mr. Manish Dadwal, AAG, Haryana.

DAYA CHAUDHARY, J.(ORAL)

Learned State counsel submits that e-mail dated 18.05.2018 sent by one Sombir Singh was treated as criminal writ petition on judicial side. It was mentioned in the e-mail that his cousin Manoj Kumar had wrongly been detained on 18.05.2018 at 8:30 p.m. by the officials of Police post Sasroli. It was also mentioned that Manoj Kumar was not shown to be arrested nor produced before any Court of law.

In response to notice of motion, reply has been filed by learned State counsel, wherein it has been mentioned that Manoj Kumar was named as accused in criminal case arising out of FIR No.149, dated 18.05.2018 registered under Sections 452, 506-IPC and 8 of the POCSO Act at Police Station Salhawas.

By considering the stand taken in the reply, it can not be said to be a case of illegal detention as Manoj Kumar has been involved in a
