AT CHANDIGARH.

CRWP No.776 of 2018

Date of Decision: 27.09.2018

Nasru

....Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana and others

....Respondents

BEFORE :- HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE DAYA CHAUDHARY

Present:- Mr. Talim Hussain, Advocate for the petitioner.

DAYA CHAUDHARY, J. (ORAL)

This petition has been filed by petitioner-Nasru stating that his daughter was harassed by her in-laws for demand of dowry and when he went to meet his daughter, he was not allowed to meet. The petitioner made a representation before the Superintendent of Police, Nuh. It has further been stated that the petitioner contacted respondents No.4 to 9 and requested them to release his daughter-Arseeda but the private respondents have given threats to him. It is also the allegation of the petitioner that local police is in connivance with the private respondents and hence, the petitioner does not have any faith in the local police.

On perusal of contents of the case; averments made in the petition as well as the representation moved before the Superintendent of Police, Nuh, it appears that the petitioner is not happy with the action of the private respondents because of demand of dowry.

A query has been put to learned counsel for the petitioner as to where is the concept of dowry under Muslim Law but he has not given any satisfactory reply as to from where the concept of dowry has come under Muslim Law. In case, the petitioner has filed a representation, he can pursue it but it cannot be said to be a case of illegal detention.

Accordingly, the present petition, being devoid of any merit, is hereby dismissed.

However, the petitioner is at liberty to avail an appropriate remedy.
