

IN THE HIGH COURT OF PUNJAB AND HARYANA AT CHANDIGARH

CWP No. 10475 of 2018
Date of decision: 27.4.2018

Prem Singh

... Petitioner

Versus

State of Haryana and others

... Respondents

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE ARUN PALLI

Present: Mr. Mazlish Khan, Advocate, for the petitioner.

ARUN PALLI, J. (Oral)

The petitioner is employed as an Assistant Accountant with the respondent department. He is aggrieved by his transfer from Primary Health Centre, Punhana, to Primary Health Centre, Nuh, caused vide an order dated 24.4.2018 (Annexure P-4).

Concededly, the petitioner has since been relieved, in terms of the impugned order, and is required to join at his new place of posting. All what is urged is that the post held by the petitioner is non-transferable, and, therefore, the impugned order is not sustainable. If that be so, the petitioner ought to have represented to the respondent authorities, as regards his grievance, in the first instance. Thus, no ground is made out to interfere in exercise of extraordinary jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. The petition is accordingly dismissed.

However, in the event, the petitioner even now makes any such representation, this Court is sanguine that the same shall be considered and duly dealt with, in accordance with law. And appropriate orders shall be passed thereupon within a period of six weeks from its receipt.
