JASPAL SINGH, J (ORAL)

By virtue of instant petition preferred under Article 226/227 of the Constitution of India, petitioner has sought issuance of a writ in the nature mandamus, directing the respondents to grant 1st, 2nd and 3rd ACP scales, which became due from 01.01.1994, 01.01.2004 and 01.01.2014 on account of completion of 30 years of regular service.

2. At the very outset of the arguments, it has been pointed out by learned State counsel that the relief claimed through the instant petition has already been granted to the petitioner. Even, the pension has been revised in view of the grant of ACP scales referred to above and arrears have been paid. Thus, the major relief claimed by the petitioner has already been granted during the pendency of instant petition. As such, the instant petition has rendered infructuous.

3. Accordingly, the instant petition is disposed of.
4. However, if the petitioner still feels aggrieved of any action of the respondents, he shall be at liberty to approach this Court.
