AJAY TEWARI, J. (Oral)

This appeal has been filed against the judgment and order of the District Judge, Chandigarh dated 12.3.2009 rejecting the application under Section 34 of the Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 (for short the Act) filed by the appellant.

The appellant had filed a claim against the respondent No.1 which had been referred to the arbitration. The claim was partially allowed but the interest on the late delivery of rice was not awarded which was challenged under Section 34 of the Act. The Court below found that the Arbitrator had given reasons why the interest was not awarded for the late delivery of rice and those reasons could not be taken to be non-germane. The Court also found that the case could not fall within strict parameters of Section 34 of the Act and dismissed the objections. Counsel for the appellants has not been able to show me how these findings are wrong.

Consequently, the appeal stands dismissed.

Since the main case has been decided, the pending civil miscellaneous application, if any, also stands disposed of.
