JASPAL SINGH, J. (ORAL)

By virtue of the instant civil writ petition, preferred under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, petitioner has sought the issuance of a writ in the nature of Mandamus directing the respondents to grant him all the retiral benefits including pension, gratuity, provident fund, leave encashment and all the consequential benefits along with interest @ 18% per annum.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that petitioner joined on 24.01.1979 and promoted as Cashier w.e.f. 17.04.1985. He was placed under suspension on 02.02.1991. However, his services were terminated vide order dated 15.02.2001. The said order was raised and his termination was set aside vide Award dated 01.04.2014 passed by the Industrial Tribunal, Ludhiana and directed his reinstatement with full back wages upto the date of his superannuation on 31.03.2004. He further contends that though full back wages have been paid yet the matter in respect of other benefits is pending before Executing Court but no retiral benefits have been extended/granted to the petitioner.

3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that though a legal notice dated 26.03.2018 (P-2) was made to the respondents but till date neither any reply to the said legal notice has been received nor any final order has been passed by the respondents. He also submits that petitioner feels satisfied in case a direction is issued to respondents particularly respondent No.1 to decide the aforesaid legal notice (P-2) in a time bound manner.

4. Accordingly, considering the aforesaid aspects but without expressing any opinion on the merits, instant petition is disposed of with a direction to respondents particularly respondent No.1 at his own level to get the matter finally disposed of or by any other officer, who is any subordinate officer, competent to deal with and take a final decision on the legal notice dated 26.03.2018 (P-2), within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a certified copy of this order. In case, petitioner does not feel satisfied with any order passed by the concerned authorities, he shall be at liberty to have recourse to other remedies available under law as well as to approach this Court.
